1 Importing data from the Internet

100%

The web is a rich source of data from which you can

In this chapter, you will learn how to get data from the web, whether it is stored in files or in HTML. You'll also learn the basics of scraping and parsing web data.

Hi Joshua ! 🙌 I'm your guide to Datacamp. Looking for something to learn, or have a question? I'm here to help!
